As a nationally prominent university, Western Kentucky University engages the globe in acclaimed, technologically enhanced academic programs. An inspiring faculty promotes entrepreneurial success and a unique campus spirit to attract an intellectually exciting and diverse family of the nation's best students.

WKU provides students with rigorous academic programs in education, the liberal arts and sciences, business, and traditional and emerging professional programs, with emphasis at the baccalaureate level, complemented by relevant associate and graduate-level programs.

The University places a premium on teaching and student learning. WKU faculty engage in creative activity and diverse scholarship, including basic and applied research, designed to expand knowledge, improve instruction, increase learning, and provide optimum service to the state and nation. The University directly supports its constituents in its designated service areas of Kentucky with professional and technical expertise, cultural enrichment, and educational assistance. The University encourages applied research and public service in support of economic development, quality of life, and improvement of education at all levels, especially elementary and secondary schools. In particular, WKU faculty contribute to the identification and solution of key social, economic, scientific, health, and environmental problems within its reach, but particularly throughout its primary service area.

Maintaining a campus of distinctive history and character, WKU sustains a student population of increasing quality. It fulfills its responsibility for access through its Bowling Green Community College, regional campus programs in Glasgow, Owensboro and Elizabethtown/Radcliff/Ft. Knox, and distance/on-line learning.

WKU's commitment is to ensure value in a holistic learning experience through high standards for student achievement and conduct, a strong faculty, technological innovation, personalized attention, broad access, and public accountability for actions and outcomes.

WKU recognizes that its mission continues to evolve in response to regional, national, and global changes, and the need for lifelong learning.

WKU ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Western Kentucky University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to support the university vision by providing a comprehensive, high quality education for student-athletes and to serve the university community, alumni, and friends through success and distinction within an environment of uncompromising integrity. The WKU Athletic Department seeks to be a source of pride for the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and to be recognized as a nationally prominent program by consistently winning Sun Belt Conference championships and achieving frequent success in NCAA post-season competitions. It is also imperative that we compete with dignity, honor and respect in upholding and advancing WKU's rich history and tradition.

We must operate in a manner that embraces the guidelines and principles established by the NCAA and Sun Belt Conference, which promote the principles of sportsmanship and ethical conduct. Fair and equitable opportunities will be a priority and will be provided for student-athletes and staff to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the Division I level regardless of gender and ethnicity. Our ultimate purpose is to provide a world class academic and athletic experience for our student-athletes resulting in the vital personal development necessary for long term success.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

College: Baseball at Sacramento State (1994); at Sacramento City College (1995); at Tennessee (1996-97) .765 winning percentage ranks fifth all-time at Tennessee the year. Myers, who served the last two seasons as WKU's associate head coach, has also coached five pitchers selected in the top 10 rounds of the MLB draft.

"I am so excited and grateful to have the opportunity to be the next head baseball coach at WKU," Myers said. "I want to thank President Ransdell and Ross Bjork for their trust and support in me to take this program to the next level. Having put so much into this program being and а proud resident of Bowling Green, it means more than I can express to have this opportunity. This is much more than a job, because this community is so special to us and the support our family has received has been incredible.

"I am looking forward to getting our recruits in and our players back. We will have the enthusiasm, energy and passion necessary to get back to trying to win a Sun Belt Conference Championship and get back into the NCAA Regionals. That is the goal every year and that is the goal this year. The guys have been working hard and playing great over the summer, and I am really proud of those guys in how they supported this entire process. They did a heck of a job and showed a heck of an amount of maturity and I am real appreciative to our players.

"I couldn't be happier to be the next head coach in a place that I want to be for a long time. WKU is a special place and a special university and our program has so much potential. It is a great time to be a part of what is going on here."

Myers joined the WKU staff in July of 2007 and was promoted to associate head baseball coach following his second season on the staff in 2009.

He has made quite an impact on the WKU baseball program in his first four seasons. The Hilltopper pitching staff has showed significant improvements under Myers' guidance, finishing in the top three in team ERA in an offensivedominated Sun Belt Conference in three of the last four seasons.

In 2011, the WKU pitching staff finished first in the league in fewest walks allowed (178), second in saves (13) and third in strikeouts (414). The Hilltoppers were led by sophomore Tanner Perkins who earned second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors and finished the regular season with a league-best 2.32 ERA. Righthander Justin Hageman was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American and the SBC Freshman of the Year. Phil Wetherell was selected in the eighth round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the New York Yankees.

The 2010 season also saw the Hilltoppers finish first in the league in strikeouts (474) and second in fewest walks allowed (167). The staff averaged 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings and 2.89 walks allowed per nine innings which ranked 28th and 17th in the nation, respectively.

The team posted a 4.33 ERA, ranking 29th in the nation, and was led by SBC Pitcher of the Year Matt Ridings, marking the second consecutive year the SBC Pitcher of the Year had been coached by Myers.

Ridings finished his career as one of the most distinguished pitchers to ever play at WKU. He posted a 34-9 career record and totaled 354 strikeouts. The 34 wins and 354 strikeouts are the most ever by a WKU pitcher and are tied for first and rank third all-time in Sun Belt Conference history, respectively. In his four year tenure (2007-10), he led the nation in wins and strikeouts.

At the conclusion of the 2010 season, three pitchers on Myers' staff were chosen in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Sophomore closer Rye Davis was taken in the 36th round by the Cleveland Indians, reliever Bart Carter was a 39th-round selection by the Minnesota Twins and Matt Ridings went in the 41st round to the Kansas City Royals.

His staff has been instrumental in WKU's NCAA Tournament appearances two of the last four years, posting earned run averages in the top three of the Sun Belt Conference each year. Myers made an immediate impact in his first season on the Hill in 2008, as the team ERA improved from ninth in the league to second upon his arrival.

In 2009, the Hilltopper staff posted a 5.47 ERA with 450 strikeouts and was led by SBC Pitcher of the Year Matt Hightower. At the conclusion of the season, three on Myers' staff were chosen in the MLB draft. Reliever J.B. Paxson was taken in the 13th round by the Los Angeles Dodgers, junior ace Matt Ridings was a 25th-round selection by the Washington Nationals and Evan Teague went in the 35th round to the Toronto Blue Jays.

In Myers' first season in 2008, WKU had a 5.41 ERA with a school-record 479 strikeouts. Ridings became just the school's second 10-game winner in the previous 17 years, and Myers' guidance helped the staff jump seven spots in team ERA in the conference.

Before joining the WKU baseball staff, Myers spent three seasons as an assistant at Auburn University. In his first year at Auburn, Myers helped lead the Tiger pitching staff to a 3.89 team ERA, the lowest by a Tigers staff in 10 years. The team also posted 21 saves and surrendered just 169 walks during the 2005 season - the fewest walks issued by any staff in the Southeastern Conference. Myers saw four of his pitchers selected in the first 13 rounds of the 2005 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn, Myers served as the head coach at UNC Asheville for four seasons, earning Big South Conference Coach of the Year honors in 2003.

One of the youngest Division I head coaches when named to the post at age 26, Myers directed Asheville to a school-record 27 wins and a tie for second in the Big South in 2003. The Bulldogs finished in the top half of the league standings each of his final three seasons, including a school-record 13 league wins in 2004. As a head coach, Myers had seven pitchers sign professionally and saw four others earn Freshman All-America honors. During his time with the Bulldogs, his pitching staffs set five different school records and finished in the top half of the league statistics each season. He served as an assistant coach at UNC Asheville for a season before being named the school's sixth head coach in June, 2000.

As a player, Myers pitched two seasons at Tennessee (1996-97), posting a 13-4 career mark and helping the Volunteers to a pair of NCAA Regional appearances.

The 1996 Tennessee team was one win shy of making the College World Series, the equivalent of being a Super Regional finalist. His .765 winning percentage ranks fifth all-time at Tennessee. He also pitched a season at Cal State-Sacramento (1994) and Sacramento City College (1995).

A native of Carmichael, Calif., Myers is married to the former Michelle Gillum of Celina, Ohio. The couple has a son, Carson.

Dougherty brings plenty of championships experience with him to the Hill as he was a part of five straight trips to the NCAA Tournament with Coastal Carolina, including Super Regional berths in 2008 and 2010. The Chanticleers' trip to the Super Regionals in 2008 was the first in school history. Coastal Carolina has also swept the regular season and conference tournament championships each year since 2007.

"Brendan will bring an instant burst of energy and there is no question his professional past will contribute right away at our program, coming from such a strong program at Coastal Carolina. It is a great addition to our program. He and Blake will do a great job together with our offense and our recruiting efforts. He is just a great person to have as part of our program."

In 2010, Coastal Carolina ranked second in the Big South, turning 50 double plays, and saw shortstop Taylor Motter, third baseman Scott Woodward and second baseman Tommy La Stella each earn first team All-Big South honors. La Stella led the team in hitting (.378) and only made five errors in 213 chances for .977 fielding percentage. He also solidified the middle of the CCU defense that included Motter and All-American centerfielder Rico Noel.

Coastal Carolina's infielders had a great 2009 season. First baseman David Anderson was named the Big South Player of the Year and Big South Tournament MVP. Anderson also had a .989 fielding percentage in 63 games and hit 21 home runs, which led the conference. Third baseman Tyler Bortnick was named second team All-Big South as he hit .363 with 11 home runs and 44 RBI. He also was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 16th round of the 2009 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft while Motter was named Freshman All-American.

Prior to Coastal Carolina, Dougherty spent two years as an assistant at Army, where he coached the infielders and worked on hitting. The Black Knights won the Patriot League Championship and advanced to the NCAA Regionals in both of Dougherty's years. In 2005, Army went to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional and went 1-2 with a win over South Alabama. In his first year at West Point, Dougherty helped second baseman Nate Stone to an All-America honor from the American Baseball Coaches' Association, the first Army player in 40 years to accomplish that feat. In that first season, the Black Knights set school records for base hits, doubles, home runs and total bases.

Dougherty spent the 2003 season at Auburn, working with the Tigers' infielders, outfielders and catchers, while assisting with bunting and baserunning. Auburn hosted a regional in that year and went 42-21 with an 18-12 record in the Southeastern Conference.

He began his coaching career at Elon University, spending four years as the Phoenix's hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator. During that time, he coached six all-conference performers and helped the Phoenix to their first NCAA Regional appearance in 2002.

Dougherty played two seasons at Coastal Carolina (1996-97), posting a .287 batting average with 40 RBI in 104 games, most of them at shortstop. He was an excellent defensive shortstop, setting Coastal Carolina's singleseason and career records for assists. Dougherty received his degree in interdisciplinary studies from Coastal Carolina in 1998.

He started his playing career at Potomac State Junior College, where he posted a .370 career batting average. A third team All-American in 1994, he was named a National Junior College Athletic Association All-American the following year in leading the school to a national championship. He also was named to the Junior College World Series All-Tournament team that season. Dougherty was inducted into the Potomac State Athletic Hall of Fame in the spring of 2008.

Dougherty married the former Jonna Bunn in December of 2008. The couple are the parents of a son, Cruz Watson, born Nov. 1, 2010.
